

Illegal mosque to be demolished

LAND | A mosque being erected illegally on municipal land in Lenasia would be demolished, the Johannesburg Property Company said at the weekend. A religious group had leased the vacant land to hold open-air services and about three weeks ago the group began erecting a structure, said company spokesman Brian Mahlangu. Sapa

